Artists Over 70 at Cedarhurst

Patsy Degener, Untitled, 2007, ceramic

"Art has the power to speak across culture and age", notes St. Louis fiber artist and exhibition art contributor Marjorie Hoeltzel in describing the unique Maturity and Its Muse art exhibition that opened Saturday, October 29 at Cedarhurst Center for the Arts in Mt. Vernon.

Curator Lynn Hamilton invited St. Louis artists over the age of 70 to contribute works of art and developed a wonderful exhibition that testifies to the skill, and talent to create vibrant works of contemporary art, of advanced aged artists.

Maturity and Its Muse, cosponsored by Byrd-Watson Drug Co. and Crossroads Community Hospital, will be featured in the Mitchell Museum Main Gallery through December 31, 2011.

Admission to this exhibit is free.
